MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

John Woods, of Hillsborough, Ind., committed suicide at his wife's burial, while insane with grief.

Richard Parker Gregory and Miss Belle Rayborn, popular Richmond young people, were married Wednesday.

Benjamin Compton and Miss Carrie Singleton, both of the Moreland section, were married at W. J. Singleton's Wednesday.

W. E. Singleton, the Lexington photographer, formerly of Lincoln county, was divorced from his wife on account of abandonment.

Henry Woodward, of Conway, O., aged 19, was married to Mrs. Julia Harrison, a widow of 45 and the mother of eight living children, the majority of whom are older than their stepfather.

Ellis L. Ogden and Miss Elizabeth Spencer Calvert, both of Somerset, will be married on the 28th. Miss Calvert has frequently visited Miss Sue Willie Hale, of this city, and is quite handsome.

John R. Chennault, of Richmond, late candidate for the democratic nomination for State Auditor, and Miss Lida Burgess, daughter of Joshua Burgess, were married at the bride's home at Mayville, Wednesday, by Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville.

Two marriages occurred in Louisville this week of friends of the editor, who would like to have accepted the invitations to attend. Tuesday evening at Christ's Church Cathedral, which was beautifully decorated, Miss Christine MacGregor and Mr. Ernest W. Sprague were made one in a ceremony that included a charming musical program by friends, in honor of the bride, who is an accomplished musician. Miss MacGregor wore a handsome gown of white satin and lace. The skirt was cut en train, and was draped in a real lace shawl. The bodice had a tulle yoke and sleeves and was trimmed in real lace. She wore a gracefully draped veil and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Sprague left immediately after the ceremony for Asheville, N. C., and upon their return in December will make their home at 623 First street.

The other marriage also occurred in Christ's Church Cathedral, that of Miss Elise Vandell and Mr. Don Barber. The church was decorated in white and green, with groups of palms and vases of chrysanthemums gracefully arranged. It was a choral wedding, the chorists singing the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. After the ceremony a breakfast was given by Mrs. Lunsford P. Vandell, mother of the bride, whose handsome home on Broadway was beautified with masses of white chrysanthemums and smilax, carrying out the scheme of white and green. The bride was beautiful and regal in her white satin wedding gown, draped in Duchess lace. She wore a real lace veil fastened with jewels, which fell gracefully over her shoulders. All the gowns were very handsome and the wedding was a lovely one in all its appointments. The groom is a wealthy New York architect and to that city he will take his bonnie bride, after a short bridal tour.

Miss Maude Vandell was maid of honor and Miss Edith Vandell, the noted sculptor, another sister, gave the bride a silver loving cup of her own design, from which the health of the bridal party was drunk prior to their departure. The ladies are daughters of the late Dr. Lunsford P. Vandell, one of the most noted physicians of his day. Their mother is a most charming and highly cultivated woman and the daughters inherit the sterling qualities of both.

Belg. Gen. Wheeler has decided not to return for Congress. He has written the president to this effect, the letter to be forwarded to the house of representatives. Gen. Wheeler believes the Philippine war will soon be settled if Congress will declare in unmistakable terms that the sovereignty of the United States is to be maintained.

BRAVE MEN FALL.
Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, pains in the head, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Knoxville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Mrs. Henrietta Bamberger, a midwife of St. Louis, stands charged with the murder of 300 children and seven women. The grand jury has returned indictments charging her with murder in the first degree. Four indictments for manslaughter have also been returned.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS.
Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, sore eyes, or any kind of granulated lids. Sold at Penny's Drug Store.

The several days' rain had resolved itself into a cold drizzle this morning.

LANCASTER.

Don't forget the minstrels at the opera house Friday night, 24th.

M. D. Johnson, of Boyle county, and Miss Lizzie Perkins Palmer, the lovable daughter of John M. Palmer, were married on Wednesday.

A. H. Bastin is remodeling the office, which he purchased of Dr. Kinnard, so as to furnish booths and a reception room for all those who desire to visit it as a telephone exchange.

I decline to accept the challenge sent me to fight a duel, because of the effects on my rights as a citizen; but, if the desperado who sent it, desires to agitate the matter, he can find me at my place of business any day.

Mr. G. S. Gaines has sold his field seed and farming implements to Fuller & Simpson, and he has accepted the position of traveling salesman in Kentucky for the Deering Harvesting Machine Co.

Rev. J. C. Massee, of the Baptist church, handles "blind tigers" without gloves, and says that they can be destroyed. Everybody agrees with him, but, as Sam Jones says, we need just one man in Lancaster.

Mr. Dan Traylor is sick of fever. Calvin Nevius was called to Boyle county on Tuesday night to see his brother Robert, who has typhoid fever. The friends of W. A. Berkele are glad to hear of his appointment to the position of ordnance sergeant, and he will discharge his duties faithfully.

Our mutual friend, Mr. Robert Betts, has at last concluded that it is not good to be alone, and he and Miss Minnie Daley, one of our most beautiful young ladies, will be married on Tuesday, 28th, at the home of the bride near Marksbury. He deserves a prize and he has certainly won one.

Our own Squire W. S. Walker, has added more laurels to the already burdened brow of Garrard county. This time it is a president, and not a governor, he having been elected president of The National Fox Hunters' Association, which was in session at Estill Springs. His dog, "Chit," won the prize as the swiftest and the best runner. Garrard has just a little better, of everything, than any other county.

I understand that over 300 witnessed Porter J. White's rendition of Faust at Garrard Opera House on Tuesday night, a number coming from Lincoln and Boyle counties. Everybody was delighted with the production and the opera house management is congratulated on making the room comfortable before its completion. Mephisto, the Spirit of Evil, said that he was the prince of lawyers, which is admitted to be true.

The cry of fraud is the old song of both parties and is usually sung by the unsuccessful party as an excuse for defeat. It is especially noticeable at this time. The republicans are singing the old song, when the facts support the assertion that they committed fraud repeatedly in the last election. Besides they have always entrusted their liberty and their lives to that pure and able jurist, Judge Pryor, and now they fear he might violate all principles of honor and certify the election of the wrong man for governor. This is only hunting a soft place to fall, as everybody knows that the State Election Commission is above suspicion and that the votes will be counted as they should be, regardless of their political convictions.

I am indebted to Mrs. Mary R. Patterson for the following: The W. C. T. U. invite the citizens of Lancaster and vicinity to attend a mass meeting at the court-house at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 26th, for the purpose of arousing public sentiment on the duties and responsibilities of American citizenship, and to circulate a petition to be presented to the next Congress of the United States, asking for the rejection and expulsion of the Polygamous Mormon, Brigham H. Roberts, as a member of that body. Short addresses will be made by the different clergymen, and other prominent citizens, good music will be furnished, and the public is earnestly requested to attend.

If the prohibition law passed by the House shall be adopted by the Senate, saloons in Georgia will be annihilated. Every plant for the brewing of beer or the manufacture of whiskey must be closed down. It will not interfere with banquets or private entertainments, but the law will not allow any club to sell or keep for the use of members any intoxicating liquors, beers or wines.

Father Dominick O'Grady, the priest who seduced and murdered his ward, Mary Gilmartin, in Cincinnati four years ago, escaped from the Longview Asylum, where he had been confined since his trial for her murder. He was acquitted on the plea of insanity, but a number of the experts declared he was sane.

Mrs. S. B. Smith, of Shelby county, gave what she thought was calomel to her two children and both died.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES

RECEIVED WITH AN OVATION AT BARBOURVILLE.

BARBOURVILLE, Nov. 22.—The meeting at Livingston closed Monday night, in fullest blessing. It was delightful, "all along the line."

At the close of the last service the elders of the Christian church heartily tendered the use of their building, whenever I wished to occupy it.

What touched me more than even that, because it was so unexpected, was the overture of my host, W. R. Dillion, who said to me as he carefully lighted me home that dark night:

"Brother Barnes, I want you to understand that No. 5 (my room in the hotel) is your room henceforth gratis—whenever you want to occupy it. Whoever may be in it, will vacate it, when you come." "Bro. Dillion" makes no "profession of religion," but this kind offer ought to put to shame many a "saint." I can appropriately quote in this connection the Master's words: "I have not found such" (insert here what you like) "No; not in Israel." And Romans 2:27 fits in here. Also John 7:53 and 8:1, to those who—as Sam Jones says—"have a place to put it."

Matt. 25:42-43 also bear on this point, if I am not interpreting the verses.

"Mine host" of the Dillion Hotel, in addition to eight days entertainment, in which, he and his excellent wife spared no pains to make me both welcome and comfortable, paid for my ticket to Barbourville, "and saw me off" in the kindest possible way.

The train arrived at Barbourville at 4:36 P. M. There, I found several old friends awaiting my arrival. An appointment had been made for the same night, and I "stepped into harness" without delay. The "Christian" church again opened its doors, and the house was full, although the notice had, of necessity, been imperfect; and the night dark, with rain threatening. I had felt, just a little, fagged; but the sight of such an audience took all the "tire" out of me. I never had more liberty in preaching the sweet gospel of G. I. L. A. N. E. for an hour or more.

Kind friends pressed around the pulpit after the service to welcome me. It was an ovation. Praise the Lord.

I am stopping at the hotel on the public square kept by the same kind gentleman who, in another street, was my host, 29 years ago, at our first Barbourville meeting; when our services were held in a great tent, pitched in one corner of the court "Plaza."

It stirs "a host of moving memories" as I look out of my window on the familiar spot.

The Lord not only saved many souls at that meeting, but some of the most remarkable bodily cures I have ever known, were wrought by the "Great Physician," through anointing and prayer.

It rained heavily at Livingston, before I left, for about an hour. It only "sprinkled" here, yesterday; but since early morning the clouds have discharged their contents in good fashion. The rain was greatly needed. Praise the Lord for it.

I believe the meeting here, will, like that at Livingston, be successful; because it begins by an exhibition of christian charity, that draws a blessing from the skies, as the magnet the iron filings. "So mote it be." Ever in Jesus.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.
A dozen new houses are under construction in Somerset, says the Journal.

Ed Robinson, colored, was accidentally shot and fatally wounded by Amos Sears at Somerset.

John Taylor, living near Rollings, lost by fire his corn crib containing nearly 800 barrels of corn.

James U. Wade, of Smith Grove, has been appointed a postal clerk between Corbin, Ky., and Jellico, Tenn.

A dispatch says that T. N. Edwards, of Lawrenceburg, is at Monroe City, Mo., a raving maniac, and can give no account of himself.

W. M. Stokes' barn in Russell county burned. Nine horses and mules and considerable feed, farming implements, &c, were consumed.

At the National Fox Hunters' Association held at Estill Springs this week W. S. Walker, of Garrard, was made president and E. H. Walker, of the same county, a director.

A dispatch from London says that a company of State Guards is being organized there, with ex Senator Ed Parker, captain; C. M. Randall, 1st lieutenant; George Thompson, 2d lieutenant, and Dr. A. C. Foster, surgeon.

Henry Williamson, who is charged with shooting with intent to kill Marshal Bolton, of Jellico, was arrested at Bristol, Tenn. While confined in jail at Williamsburg he had a streak of religion, which led to his being accepted by the Baptist church, and he was taken from the county jail and baptized in the Cumberland River. Following this, prominent Baptists went on his bond and then he skipped.

MT. VERNON.

Robt. Cox has opened a store on church street.

Rev. J. E. Allen, of Danville, is holding services at Broadhead.

A Pennington, our new town marshal, is doing some good work on streets.

J. C. Allen, aged 70, a highly respected citizen of Livingston, dropped dead Sunday evening.

Horace Edwards was held over before Judge Williams, charged with killing 11 of a neighbor's geese.

Moses Edwards, of Jackson county, was before Commissioner White Tuesday, charged with liquor selling. He was promptly acquitted.

Tilmon Gilpin is here accompanied by William Shafer, of Gallatin county, looking out tobacco lands. They will, if proper encouragement is given, bring 50 tobacco raisers to Rockcastle to begin work in the Spring. Mr. Shafer says the soil here is suitable for raising the finer grades of the leaf.

J. T. Adams is here from Bryantsville. W. J. Pardon is visiting his brother here. M. G. Gilmore, of Danville, and G. W. Evans, of Crab Orchard, are visiting the family of G. W. McClure. Dan Brown was here from London Sunday to see one of our pretty girls.

Squire Ashley Owens went to Louisville Monday. Druggist Wesley is on the sick list. Sheriff Catron is attending the Collier trial at Somerset. Dan Holman was up from Crab Orchard. Reuben Mullins, drummer, was at home a few days, off the road.

The republicans held what they called an indignation meeting here last Monday, in which some very incendiary resolutions were passed, containing threats, abuse, slander and vilification of democrats. Governor Goebel in particular. Some of the parties who assisted in the "resolution" should have been in the more honorable business of trying to clear their own skirts of worse charges than those they fling at Goebel, who is as much their moral and intellectual superior as can be expressed by the English language.

What good these people expect to gain by such proceeding is past finding out. It is to be regretted that we have men who will countenance such rot as was on tap during the meeting. It would have been to some advantage had they been working for the cause of education and religion, instead of attempting to create more strife and disorder in a State that is already known far and wide as the "dark and bloody ground."

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.
Rev. F. W. Allen will preach the union thanksgiving sermon at the Presbyterian church at 10:30 A. M.

Four hundred colleges of this country have a total wealth of $250,000,000, and seven of this number own property worth almost $100,000,000.

There have been about 10 additions to the Baptist church so far. The meeting will close tonight and the baptizing will be by the pastor Sunday evening.

There has been only one sermon preached at Valley View in three months and the people there are hungry for preaching, says the Richmond Climax.

At the Episcopal Congress it was stated that in 80 years the Episcopalians had increased their clergy five fold; contributions 10 fold and communicants 15 fold.

President Rich, of Chattanooga, the head of the Mormon church in the South, has been advised that two Mormons elders, John M. Myler and F. P. Carlisle, were whipped by a mob in Butler county, Ky., and ordered to leave the country.

Speaking of Dr. H. M. Scudder, the Carlisle Mercury says: He has had but one pastorate all his life—the joint charge of the churches at Elizaville and Carlisle, although often called to much larger and wealthier congregations. A ministerial friend of his told a dream in this connection which he dreamed that Dr. Scudder was in Heaven, and after moping around the golden streets in apparent discontent was asked how he liked it, when he replied, "Oh, it is all very fine, but I believe you may take me back to Elizaville."

Pastor J. W. Ingie writes from Yosomile to the Baptist Recorder: "I held a meeting of eight days at Frey's Creek school house, Casey county, assisted by Bro. J. W. Grider, a Separate Baptist minister. I organized a church of 15 members, five by experience and baptism. The second Saturday in October I commenced a meeting at the same place with the same help, and God wonderfully blessed our efforts. Twenty three by experience received as candidates, 19 baptized, eight, who by being isolated from church privileges and having once belonged to Baptist churches had lost their identity as a church, renewed their covenant, one by letter, making 43 in full fellowship, four to be baptized, total 47."

Mark Hardin sold to Willis Barnett a milk cow for $40.

GARRET A. HOBART, THE DEAD VICE PRESIDENT.

Vice President Garrett A. Hobart died at his home in Patterson, N. J., Tuesday after a long illness. He was born in 1844, graduated at Rutgers College 33 years ago, was admitted to the bar in 1869 and elected to the State senate in 1872, of which he was elected speaker. He was chosen again in 1876 and also in 1881 to the same office, serving also as chairman of the State committee and as National committeeman. When he was elected vice president, he was a director in 60 different companies. The vice-president and his charming wife divided the honors with the President and Mrs. McKinley at Washington. Vice President Hobart's genial temperament and charming personality made him very popular, not only in the Senate, over which he presided with dignity and ability, but with all who came in contact with him. Mr. Hobart left but one child, Garrett A. Hobart, Jr., a boy 14 years old. Fanny, a girl of 22, died in 1895 in Italy while there with her parents.
